On May Day...

Y, Provo Wait Spring Citycleaning

rocks, brush weeds and burn trash. At 1430 North old founde With rakes, shovels, paint brushes and cleaning rags in low BYU students and faculty are planning to help give Provo a spring polishing on Y Day, May 1.

A new feature of this year's event will be a citywide street cleanup. Students will clean rubbish and trash from streets. Provo City residents are encouraged to clean their own yards and place the rubbish on the curbs so students can remove it. STUDENTS ARE being organized into work forces through wards and campus organizations. The day's activities will begin with a breakfast between 6 and 8 a.m. designed to get everyone up early, according to Carolyn Thoms, sheds and rocks will be removed. Eggs will be gathered and Swenson, co-publicity chairman. These breakfasts will be done on an individual ward basis.

The theme of the day, "May Day the Y's Way," will have a significant meaning as hundreds of students work on projects in Canyon Glen, Rotary Park, the Provo airport, South Park, Provo boat harbor, cemetery, golf course clubhouse, golf course life line, Pioneer Museum, Provo swimming pool, Utah Lake Lions Club, Rock Canyon and Lions Park.

THE WORKERS will do everything from polish woodwork and wash windows to paint trees and bushes pulled at the Spanish Park Farm and Provo Farm.

Bhine Lee demonstrates what usually happens when gals and guys get together for Y Day as he wheels Shar on down the sidewalk. Besides cleaning up trash 'Y' Day activities will undoubtedly include this sort of fun.

ne Arts Festival...

Friday and Saturday mark the final days of the Fine Arts Festival, which has continued for the past two weeks. Sponsored by the ROTC and Angel Flight, it collected approximately 685 tons as compared to last semester's 626, revealing the usual of smaller contributions in spring.

Blood Drive Opples Goal With 685 Pints

BYU broke its own fall record to set a new State record on spring blood drive sponsored the ROTC and Angel Flight. It collected approximately 685 tons as compared to last semester's 626, revealing the usual of smaller contributions in spring.

Good donors also broke the 1958 record of 271 pints in a day by giving 275 pints. MAKING THE drive successful students like Wilma Jean Peters, a graduate student in nutrition. Miss Peters has given pints of blood in annual drive, eight of them to BYU and campaigns. We were hoping to get just said ROTC personnel. "Get almost 700 pints is wonder

The final offering of the English Dept. will be a lecture by Marden Clark entitled, "Art, Religion and the Market Place." The lecture will begin at 4:10 p.m. in 270 Eyring Science Center.

THE ART DEPT. has scheduled an openhouse to begin at 8 a.m. Students of that department will give demonstrations on all phases of art until 2 p.m. The demonstrations will include jewelry, basket and rug making; water and oil paintings; sculpturing; and printing methods. ings starting at 8:15 p.m. in the Smith Auditorium.

The other play being sponsored by the Drama Dept. will be staged in the Arena Theatre, C94 Smoot Administration Bldg. under the direction of Dr. Harold I. Hansen and Max Colquhoun.

Orbiting the Universe...

BERLIN—Combat-equipped U.S. troops took up defense positions in West Berlin in a test of their ability to ward off any possible Communist attack on this isolated Western outpost inside the Iron Curtain.

TOKYO—Communist China broadcast a new attack on Premier Khrushchev and other "revisionists." Peking claimed that Lenin predicted that the leadership of world Communist ultimately would swing from eastern Europe to Asia.

The main object of the day will be to give the block Y on the mountainside a new coat of whitewash. Several hundred students will be assigned to form a human chain to shuttle buckets from the base camp to the block letter.

DR. THOMAS FRANCK

Lawyer, World Traveler To Share Views Monday

Thomas M. Franck, professor of International Law at New York University's School of Law, and world traveler, will be the Forum speaker Monday at 10 a.m. in the Smith Fieldhouse.

A Canadian, Dr. Franck earned his law degree at the University of British Columbia and his doctorate in juridical science at Harvard.

HE HAS traveled in 37 countries on four continents, mostly in the past four years. His visits in Europe, Africa, the Middle East and the Far East have given him the opportunity for on-the-spot observation of world politics. In 1960, Dr. Franck toured England, Germany, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, France and North Africa.

His wide travels have been on occasions for research and discussions with leaders in each country. He has interviewed such world leaders as Nehru, Nasser, Khrushchev, Mbonye and many others.

Dr. Franck, not yet 30 years old, is heard each week over the Canadian Broadcasting Company on a program called "Viewpoint" on which he discusses his extensive travels.

Rashomon Gives Excitement, Thought-Provoking Messages

by Val Limburg

Strange, powerful music and sounds combine with the exciting sword fights, a mystic scene of a sorcerer and evil spirits, and the awkwardness of human weaknesses to impress audiences with thought-provoking messages in the current BYU production, "Rashomon."

Tickets for Friday's and Saturday's performances are still available at the Joseph Smith ticket office.

ACCORDING TO his director, Dr. Charles Metten, the two-act drama is probably one of the most unique plays done this year on the Joseph Smith Auditorium stage. Three separate sets together on stage furnish background for four different flash-backs of an assault and murder in the bamboo groves of ancient Japan.

The "surprise" fourth vision of what happens when a notorious robber blinds and gags a Samurai Officer then assaults his wife, furnishes a reflection of man's real self—his cowardice and vanity.

BYU Debate Team Placed Second In Mass. Tourney

The BYU debate team currently competing in the National West Point Debate Tournament, placed second in the Holy Cross Tournament at Mount Holyoke, Mass., this past weekend.

Sophomore political science majors, Steve Davis and Ned Ashby, also tied for fourth place in the individual speaker award at the meet. Southern Illinois University took the top position at the tourney.

TRAVELING on to the West Point Joust, the BYU aces won a demonstration debate at New York City College Monday afternoon.

Representing Region I from 5 western states, Ashby and Davis will compete through Saturday at the "world series of debate" at West Point.

Kennedy Asks Restored Peace Says Harriman

MOSCOW, (UPI)—U.S. Troubleshotter W. Averell Harriman arrived in Moscow Thursday on an urgent mission to restore peace in Laos. He bore a personal message from President Kennedy to Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

The 72-year old Undersecretary of State said Kennedy is "anxious" for a Laos settlement and believes Khrushchev is too. But he firmly rejected Soviet charges the U.S. is responsible for renewed fighting on the Plain of Jars.

"THE U.S. WAS been careful to adhere to the Geneva agreement in both letter and spirit," Harriman said.

Before boarding his Soviet jetliner in London, he dismissed the Soviet charges as "insulting and incorrect" and probably designed only to placate Communist China.

"I THINK the Russians are trying to curry favor with Red China and put in the accusation on their insistence," he said.

Harriman expects to meet with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko before seeing Khrushchev. The U.S. embassy asked the Soviet Foreign office to arrange the meeting with Gromyko for Friday.

HARRIMAN PIT the blame for the crisis squarely on the Pro-Communist Fathet Lao forces. He said they had launched an attack on the Neutralist government of Premier Souvanna Phouma which "we all support."

Y Coed to Reign as National IK Duchess

For the fourth consecutive time the national Intercollegiate Knight Queen has been chosen from BYU. News of the selection came from the national convention held last week in Billings, Mont.

Roseanne Tuelser was the fourth coed to be selected for the position. Miss Tuelser was chosen as the BYU IK Duchess last fall, and was selected regional princess before leaving for Billings.

BYU coeds who have reigned as queens for the preceding years are Colleen Redford, Donna Hilton and Sherry Hale.

Miss Tuelser is a sophomore French major from Mckean, Va. She will serve as junior class vice president next year.

A reception honoring Miss Tuelser will be held for the student-body Friday 7-8 p.m. in the Smith Family Living Center Dining Room.

Y Tourists to Get Tips, Share Excitement Sat.

Hundreds of travelers who will participate in BYU tours next summer will attend Travel Study Day Saturday in the Smith Family Living Center.

Robert C. Taylor, director of the BYU Travel Study Department, urged all tour members and interested persons to attend for a briefing, instruction and tips on travel.

Social hour and viewing of travel displays will begin at 9 a.m. At 10 a.m. Dr. C. Lowell Lees, director of the University Theater, University of Utah, will address the group. Mrs. James C. Webster, wife of a Provo physician and a world traveler, will give a demonstration on wardrobe and packing hints.

At a noon luncheon in the Smith Ballroom, a program will be presented by the famous BYU International Folk Dancers. The travelers will divide into groups at 1:30 p.m. for orientation by their tour directors.

Thirteen BYU tours will take travelers to Europe, Latin America, the Near East, Far East, Greece, Hawaii, along the Mormon pioneer trail and around the world.

Interested persons may call the Travel Study Department, 865 North 7th East, FR 4-1211, extension 2747.

Donaters Help Size Of Library

Growth in Clark Library sounds more than a tiny bit like growth in every other corner of BYU—a small giant getting bigger faster. The library has more than doubled in seven years since 1956. Yet when the 400,000th volume was added recently the collection had reached only two-fifths library capacity of a million volumes.

AN IMPORTANT source of books is private contributions. For example, BYU's Emeritus Club is an organization of people who have given either books or money from $5 to $100. A Colorado book collector presented 5,000 first editions and sixteen boxes of manuscripts of early American and English literature. An admirable Herman Melville collection came in one swoop with 450 volumes from a Colorado professor.

The largest student collection ever given was by the 1962 graduating class, who presented the library $2500 to purchase books for the undergraduate reading collection.

Individuals, often having no connection with BYU or the Church, have given money or books they already owned. These range from a California mining engineer to a New York architect.

High Heels Pressure Hard Floors

Achilles' heel was his death, but today the woman's heel is a man's death if she steps on him. A 110-pound girl wearing siletto heels exerts more pressure per square inch than one wheel of a four-door limousine would.

THE PRESSURE per square inch that she exerts is 4,000 lbs., so much that civil engineers seldom allow half a ft to be exerted on the corner stone of a large building.

Even the average-size shoe heel, which most girls wear, will exert a minimum pressure of 750 pounds per square inch when worn by a 112-pound girl. At the same time a 112-pound boy wearing conventional shoes will only exert 15 pounds per square inch.

GENERALLY, one would think that no damage could be done to asphalt floors by walking on them, but with spikes, it's a different story.

Dr., Mrs. LeRoy Hafen ... Authors-Editors To Be Honored At Reception

A reception will honor Dr. and Mrs. LeRoy R. Hafen, authors, editors and collectors of Western American historical literature, Saturday at 7:30 p.m.—9:30 p.m. in the Pioneer Room of the Clark Library.

The Hafens over a 40-year period assembled thousands of volumes of literature on the region and presented them to the Clark Library.

A bibliography of their collection and writings, recently published by the Library, shows it is rich in Western Americana. It is the largest gift of regional literature that has been contributed to the Library.

Dr. Hafen, a member of the historical faculty at BYU, is the Colorado State historian and editor of the "Colorado Magazine" for 30 years. He has produced work dramatizing the opening of the West.

WORKING AS a team, the couple discovered and published manuscripts, rare diaries, journals, letters and documents. Their latest achievement is a 15-volume series, "The Far West and the Rockies, 1820-1875," a 12-year project.

Since their marriage 47 years ago, the Hafens have written or edited 34 books. One of these, "The Colorado Story," is used as a textbook in Colorado high schools. Their next project, already under way, is a three-volume work on the early mountain fur trade.

High School Marching Groups To Perform With Cougarettes

The Cougarettes, BYU's Freshman and Sophomore girls' marching team, has had a variety of activities slated throughout the year.

Occasionally they plan social events which result in enjoyment for the entire unit. Such an event was hosted last Friday when the Cougarettes held their annual dinner dance at Log Haven in Salt Lake. The dinner dance was particularly special because the new Commandant and the new President were announced. Next year's Commandante and President are Donna Inouye and Susan Miller respectively.

In order that they might create enthusiasm among the high school marching groups, the present Cougarettes spent an afternoon in March with representatives of various high school pep clubs in Utah for the purpose of teaching routines for them to take back to their own individual pep clubs.

Having a month to practice, these high school girls are going to present their routines in one large group at the annual track meet on Saturday. The meet will be held at 12 noon on the BYU football field.

Immediately preceding this meet, the Cougarettes themselves will perform in a 45-minute program in the Albert Smith Fieldhouse, consisting of three marches, Midnight in Moscow, Rat Race, and Collegiana.

FROM THE DUGOUT

by Doug Christensen
Assistant Sports Editor

The new look in BYU athletics took another step forward this spring with the organization of the Cougar Club.

This men's service organization is dedicated to the general promotion of athletics on every scale. The men working in the club are interested in building an image of BYU which will entice athletes of high scholastic and physical abilities to attend this college.

Don Foulk, president of the Cougar Club, stated that the income derived from club projects goes to the athletic department, which in turn uses the money to improve athletic facilities on campus.

The Varsity-Alumni game to be held May 4 is sponsored by the club and proceeds from ticket sales will be used as a building fund for the construction of much needed dugouts at the baseball field.

The organization is doing a fine job in hosting athletes who come to campus for tournaments and for a glimpse at the campus. Their success, in helping the coaches obtain new players has been underestimated by students and faculty, in the opinion of this writer.

Too much glory goes to the coaches and administration for obtaining athletes. The friendliness of the students on campus is really the big selling point in gaining the sportsmen. The Cougar Club has received letters from various athletic teams from the area thanking them for their hospitality.

It is unfortunate that the entire studentbody cannot be members of the organization. The club is made up of an elect group with members having a scholastic standing above a 3.0 grade point average. Most of the men are returned missionaries who have held leadership posts in their missions.

The University wants winning teams and in order to accomplish this it is necessary that good athletes are on the teams. Making the athletes welcome will give them the desire to provide the Y with championship teams.

VARSITY-ALUMNI GAME

This year a nominal fee of twenty-five cents will be charged at the gate with the proceeds as stated above going towards baseball dugouts.

Eldon Portie, BYU's favorite son, will be the main attraction at the game as he heads the Alumni squad. Adding color to the game will be the great number of pro players attending the game with Houston Oilers Coach Frank "Pop" Ivy at the helm.

Cougars Beat Mesa Squad In Twin Bill

The Cougars unloaded their big bats against Mesa Junior College Thursday to blast out a double victory over the Mavericks 13-1 and 9-1.

IN THE OPENING encounter the Cats fell behind Mesa after six and a half innings 2-1 but a bases loaded double by pinch hitter Duane Fitzpatrick in the bottom half of the sixth began an eight run outburst that put the Cats in the drivers seat.

Chuck Midland the third of five Cougar hurlers picked up the win as Coach Glen Tucker took a look at his pitching staff. Suffering the loss was Mike Bennett of the Mavericks.

THE BIG blows of the game came off the bats of Pat Bates in the fifth inning and Roger Hurt and Frank Snyder in the eighth frame.

In the second game BYU took a 4-0 lead in the fourth inning then scored five more runs in the fifth to move ahead 9-0.

THE MESA club scored their sole run in the top half of the seventh inning.

Jim Armstrong belted a two run homer in the fourth inning and Duane Fitzpatrick polled the ball over the fence in the fifth to account for six of BYU's nine runs.

PITCHER RON HOLMES tagged a single to drive in another run and two Cougars scored on wild pitches.

Bill Walden was the winning hurler while Mesa pitcher Dennis Kelley suffered the loss.

The Cougars will meet Weber College Tuesday in a doubleheader while the Kittens play East High at 1 p.m. in Provo Saturday.

COUGHING . . .

Coughs are produced by an inflamed, irritated condition of the membrane lining the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs. This in turn is due to a failure of the nerve currents governing this membrane which, like all other nerves, have their origin at the spine; they branch off from the spinal cord and emit between two movable bones of the spine. There is where interference occurs, and there is where Palmer Chiropractors adjustments are made to remove the cause.

Reader's Theatre Shows 'The Mormon Miracle'

An innovative type of theatre will be presented by the BYU Theatre this week as part of the 1963 Fine Arts Festival. "The Mormon Miracle" by Grace Johnson will be presented in Readers Theatre at 8:15 p.m. Friday and Saturday. Performances will be staged in the Arena Theatre, C-34 Student Administration Bldg.

"The Mormon Miracle" is a dramatic account of the vision of Joseph Smith and the resultant establishment of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, as well as the trials and tribulations of the early Church history period.

According to Dr. Harold I. Hansen and Max C. Gougherty, directors, Readers Theatre is an imaginative type of presentation, unique in that characters enacted are not realistically involved, but are suggestive and move about with book in hand.

Tickets for the BYU Readers Theatre production are $1 for those without activity cards and may be obtained at the Dramatic Arts office, Steadman House.
